Groupe Silicomp reference shareholders continue exclusive negotiations with France Telecom

Groupe Silicomp (Paris FR000063794) – Groupe Silicomp reference shareholders, acting together, and France Telecom have agreed to extend the exclusivity period, expiring today, until 4 December 2006, in order to finalise ongoing negotiations.

On 9 November last, Groupe Silicomp announced that its reference shareholders, acting in concert and holding 56% of the share capital and with a majority of voting rights of the company, had entered into exclusive negotiations with France Telecom (Paris FR0000133308) for a period of fifteen days, after having received an offer for the acquisition of their shares at a price of € 20 per share.

Note that 2006 Q3 results are published separately today, in accordance with the shareholders' agenda.
